

Co-funded by the Erasmus+ Programme
of the European Union

Georgian Research and Educational
Networking Association
GRENA

Prof. Ramaz Kvatadze

<https://www.grena.ge/>

ramaz@grena.ge

The Environmental Science Education
for Sustainable Human Health

GRENA was founded in 1999 for the development of IT in the education and research field

The main fields of GRENA's activities

- Providing IT services to users and implementation of new, innovative services
- Training, education and international certification
- Preparation and implementation of international and national R&D projects

GRENA provides IT services using its network infrastructure, data center and different technologies to more than 150 organisations in Georgia

Main services

- Internet connectivity
- European research and education network GÉANT connectivity
- Cloud and Virtualization
- eduroam - education roaming
- eduGAIN - authentication and authorization
- Computer Emergency Response Team – CERT-GE
- ge. and .გე country top-level domain registration
- Software licenses and subscriptions

IT education

- Cisco Networking Academy
- Linux Professional Institute Academic Partner
- Oracle and SQL courses
- e-Learning center based on Moodle, Math-Bridge and cyber exercises portal
- Authorised Certification Centre of Pearson VUE

Current EU projects

GN4-3 Research and Education Networking – GÉANT

EU4Digital

EU4Digital: Connecting Research and Educational communities
(EaPConnect)

Modernization of Environment Protection Studies Programmes for Armenia and Georgia - MENVIPRO

National Initiatives for Open Science in Europe - NI4OS-Europe

CyberEDU - Creation of sustainable CyberEDU Network to foster internationalization of academic cooperation

GEORGIAN RESEARCH AND EDUCATIONAL
NETWORKING ASSOCIATION

GRENA is participating in all activities of MENVIPRO project, mainly in IT developments and dissemination

Thank you for your kind attention!