DEGLI STUDI DELLA
TUSCIA

- international student mobility (for study)
- international summer and winter schools
- Double Degree programs (especially Master)
- traineeship, internship, job placement, project works
- research projects, of course

To foster additional Double Degree Agreements

A Double Degree is a joint program that allows students to:

- Spend one/two academic year/s at home University and one academic year (or a single semester) at a partner University;
- Receive two diplomas, the national Degree and the Degree of the host University.

Why?

- To create a differentiating factor in the CV of the students
- To become more visible world-wide and to increase our international relevance
